

LOOSE CHANGE AT EHS

LOOSE CHANGE

Through the countless hours and past years spent at EHS, a person will end up going through and witnessing change. This past year has been one of noticeable change. Some of the changes would include new classes added to the curriculum and new administration and staff. Maybe the most noticeable change of all is the increase in student enrollment. From these changes we came up with a theme indicating the slight variations faced this past year.

SENIORS JUST SENIORS

The best thing about being a SENIOR IS . . .

it's the last year (maybe), we rule, senior privileges the last nine weeks, looking forward to graduating and getting out of here, we're superior.

Our class is best at . . .

making people laugh, having fun, getting into trouble, sporting events, having senioritis, everything, school spirit.

EHS is superior because . . .

I went there, they have ultimate seniors, we have good-looking senior girls, we're the few and the proud.

The best change at EHS this year is . . .

earlier senior privileges, it doesn't get any better, DCHS students came, principal, new bleachers, being seniors.

When I graduate this year, I'm going to miss . . .

younger friends, athletics, being a couch potato, classmates.

The event I will always remember is . . .

Homecoming football versus Napoleon, state wrestling, districts at Gackle, '91 Prom.

The place I will always remember is . . .

practice field for football, Cenex, Minot, the gym, the roller skating rink in Aberdeen.

Our class is best symbolized by . . .

loud cars, an athlete, scrambled eggs, a chain — we are all linked together, a dictionary.

Our class is best known for . . .

the rowdy cowboys, best prom, getting in trouble, gorgeous girls, joking, being stupid.

Class Officers: Matt Deitemeyer, Jason Peterson, Kurt Johnson, Michele Mueller.

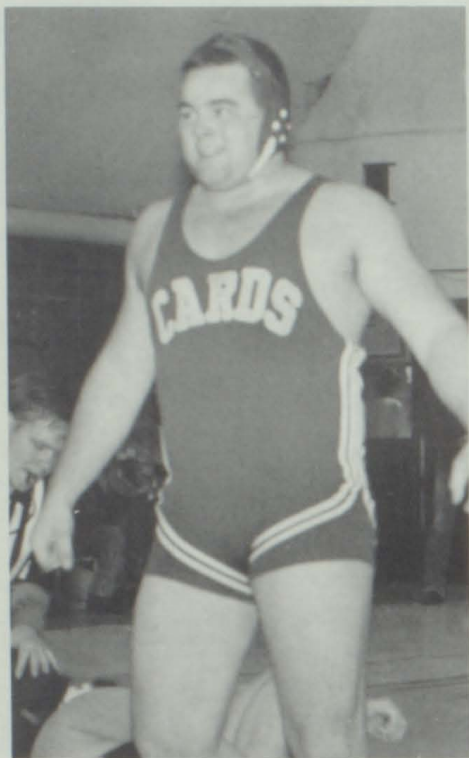

Basketball Seniors: Matty, Russ, Trevor, Mike . . .
 "Friends, Romans, countrymen, lend me your ears . . ."

Ruthie at the student council Christmas party.

Derick dressed for homecoming biker day.

SENIOR SPORTS

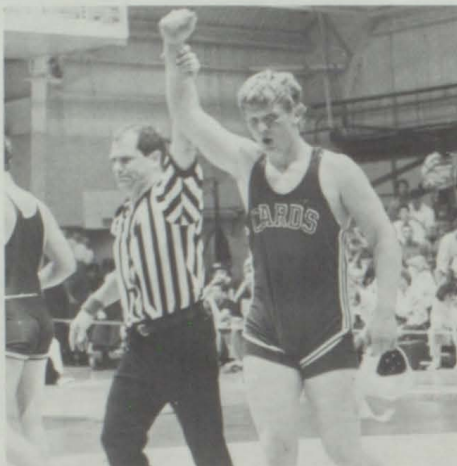

Wally, heavyweight champ, winning another match.

Russell, boxing out Edgeley dude.

David, winning his match during wrestling regionals.

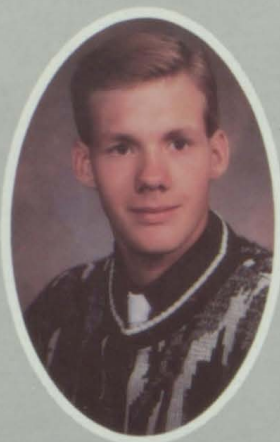

Trevor, waiting patiently for the basketball to be thrown to him.

Matty, concentrating hard to make the winning point.

The best thing about being a JUNIOR is ...

Our class is best at ...

everything and procrastination.

EHS is superior because ...

we have awesome basketball, volleyball, wrestling, and Cardette members.

The best change at EHS this year is ...

being allowed to chew gum — like it ever stopped us before!

The worst change at EHS this year is ...

having stricter detention.

The most unlikely event to happen next year is ...

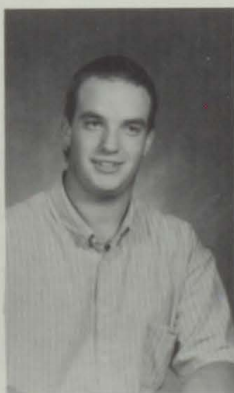

the school will close down.

The place we will always remember is ...

the hallways and the locker rooms.

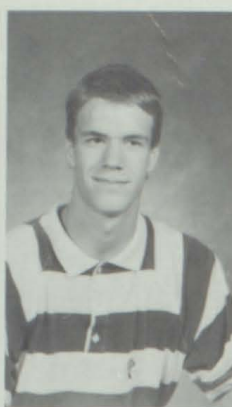

The event I will always remember is ...

Homecoming game, state wrestling, and Cardettes state competition.

The best thing about being a SOPHOMORE is ...

being a year older and next year finally being a junior.

Our class is best at ...

sports and having fun.

EHS is superior because ...

we have a lot of talent in academics and sports and we have a lot of school spirit.

The best change at EHS this year is ...

being able to chew gum and the new students.

The worst change at EHS this year is ...

detention for tardiness and more homework.

The most unlikely event to happen next year will be ...

our class getting the prom together without killing each other first and we will be state champs in basketball.

The event we will always remember is ...

pulling off our Valentine's Day dance, and getting to regionals in basketball.

The place we will always remember is ...

the high school gym during lunch hour, TBC field-house, and the hallways.

Our class is best symbolized by ...

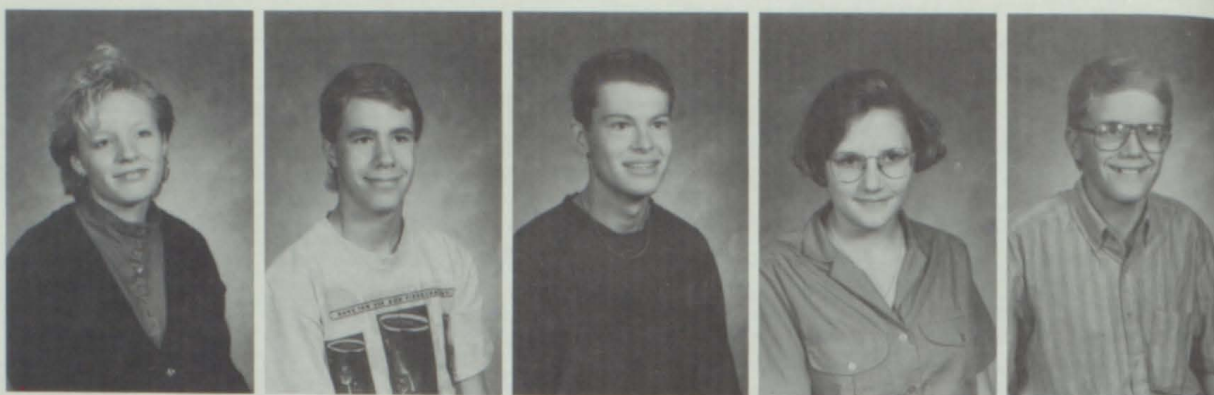

our willingness to work hard if we have to.

Our class is best known for ...

our reputation, school spirit, and athletes.

A Penny for Our Thoughts

The best thing about being a FRESHMAN is ...

you have only three years left in school, you're not in Jr. High, and you can play varsity sports.

Our class is best at ...

sticking together.

EHS is superior because ...

the sports are awesome. The best change at EHS this year is ...

being able to chew gum and go to more dances.

The worst change at EHS this year is ...

To Coin a Phrase

The best thing about being an EIGHTH GRADER is . . .

actually being able to go in front of someone in the lunch line, not being the bottom people anymore.

Our class is best at . . .

sports and getting into trouble.

EHS is superior because . . .

we are, lots of school spirit.

The best change at EHS this year is . . .

we can chew gum, new kids.

The worst change at EHS this year is . . .

the building is still standing, the Desert Storm Breakfast.

The most unlikely event to happen next year is . . .

no one will flunk Algebra, the school will burn down.

The event I will always remember is . . .

mini Cowbell game, homecoming game against Napoleon.

The place I will always remember is . . .

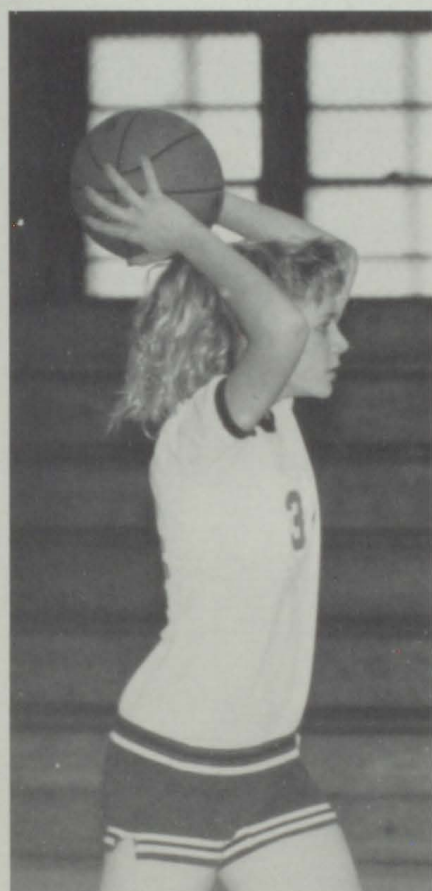

the gym, the fieldhouse, Mr. Graf's office.

Our class is best symbolized by . . .

anything athletic, wisdom.

Our class is best known by . . .

E-CLUB

Membership in E-Club, the largest club at EHS, consists of students who have received the letter E in extra-curricular activity.

Two foreign exchange students attended EHS this year. Grace Peng (top photo) is a sixteen-year-old student from Tawain. Her host families were the Steve Bowling and the David Phillip's families. Grace had these comments about her experience in Ellendale: "It is nice to be here in Ellendale, to know everyone, and make so many friends. It's fun to have homecoming week, snow, Halloween, Christmas, Easter, prom and a lot of holidays here this year, even though I was about froze to death. Just Kidding! I've learned a lot from this year, so I'm sure I'll miss you after I get home!!!"

Marta Sabina (bottom photo) from Spain, attended EHS first semester. Her host family was the Tex Kraig family.

The Junior Education Teaching Students (JETS) program at EHS allows high school juniors and seniors with a B average the opportunity to gain experience in elementary education by observing and working with elementary teachers and students. This year's JETS student, Ruth E. Jeter, worked with upper elementary and plans to obtain a degree in elementary education.

SUCCESSFUL SCIENCE SCHOLARS

State Qualifiers: Peter Sykora, advisor; Russ Jury, Michelle Mueller, alternate; Ruth Jeter, Mark Munyon.

Senior Division: Peter Sykora, advisor; Eric Stefanowicz, Russ Jury, Ruth Jeter, Michelle Mueller, Nicki Frigen, Val Brandenburger.

Junior Division: Mark Munyon, Steve Kaiser, Nick Lonski, Julie Brandenburger, Leigh Urbaniak.

More than one hundred science projects and experiments filled the Ellendale High School gym February 27 for the annual Science Fair competition. All students in grades 7-12 enrolled in a science class at EHS were required to do a project under the direction of instructors Mark Thielges and Peter Sykora.

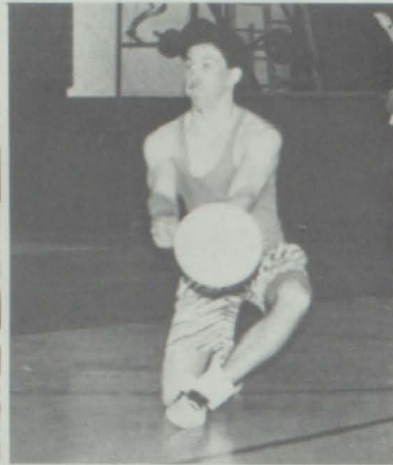

Junior high winners at local competition who advanced to regional competition in Jamestown were Leigh Urbaniak, Mark Munyon, Julie Brandenburger, Nick Lonski, and Steve Kaiser. Mark Munyon placed first at regionals and advanced to state competition in April.

Senior high winners at local competition who advanced to regional competition were Ruth Jeter, Russ Jury, Michelle Mueller, Nicki Frigen, Val Brandenburger, and Eric Stefanowicz. Regional winners who advanced to state were Ruth Jeter, Russ Jury, and alternate Michelle Mueller. Russ Jury was named state alternate winner and advanced to international competition in Nashville in May.

“FOR JUST

After hours of decision-making, planning, ordering and working, the annual junior-senior prom was held April 25. The formal theme was carried out in red, black, and white tuxedos, balloons, and streamers. The banquet held the night before featured Pastor Tim Brown as guest speaker and a slide show of the seniors produced by Brent McCown. (Right) Maybe you'll need a smaller size, Rich! (Far Right) "Okay, I think we've found the leak!"

Junior girls diligently string lights.

Hey, Chris, this is no time to rest!

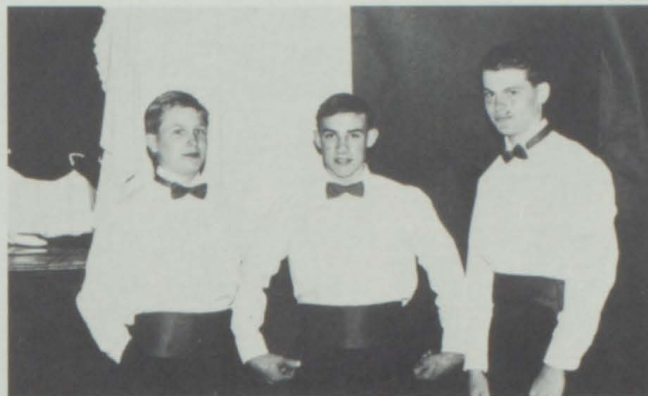

We'll never get it done at this rate!

The end result of all the work is realized in the Grand March. The dance floor is transformed into a picture gallery as spectators crowd the couples on the dance floor in an effort to get the perfect shot.

"Ryun's off in Dreamland, but Chuck looks enthused!"

"Scott's playin' it cool with BOO BOO NANAY running through his head and Shanda's pickin' up the vibes!"

"Kim's every move is being monitored by Mr. Graf. Wally thinks it's funny."

May was a great month for the Seniors of '92. May 10th was Baccalaureate, a sort of "warm-up" for what was to happen a week later. Pastor Darrel Lindensmith gave the invocation while Pastor Pat McBride gave a message about setting goals with a purpose. The Senior Swing Choir girls also sang "Heirlooms" and "Give Them All to Jesus."

Graduation, a time of happiness, sentimentality, sadness, and gratefulness all rolled into one, was held on May 17th in the High School Gym. While it was a glad time to get on with the rest of our lives, some found it pretty hard to let go of the class and memories made throughout the years. A few got quite emotional before the Processional even started. The invocation was given by Father Hunkler, while the microphone lasted, and the welcome by Mr. Hansen. The Valedictorian, Ruthie Jeter, and Salutatorian, Paul Glynn, gave their speeches first on the future and memories respectively. Following them was a trio consisting of Ruth Jeter, Shanda Tvedt, and Michelle Mueller who sang "For You My Friend." Then Michelle Mueller and Matt Deitemeyer, the two speakers voted on by the class, spoke on the meaning of graduation and memories respectively. Another musical selection, "Friends," followed sung by Michelle Mueller, Stacy Zimmel, Beth Burnett, Ruth Jeter, Shanda Tvedt, Deanna Hoffman, and Neilee Wagner. There were quite a few tears that time. After all this, the Seniors got what they had been waiting for — their DIPLOMAS! Nobody tripped, there were a few laughs and whistles, and it turned out to be a beautiful day!

Father Hunkler giving the invocation.

Michelle, Ruthie, and Shanda singing "For You My Friend."

Michelle, Stacy, Beth, Ruthie, Shanda, Deanna, and Neilee singing "Friends."

"I'll betcha ten bucks it's signed!"

"Now what do I do?"

Ruth Jeter giving her speech.

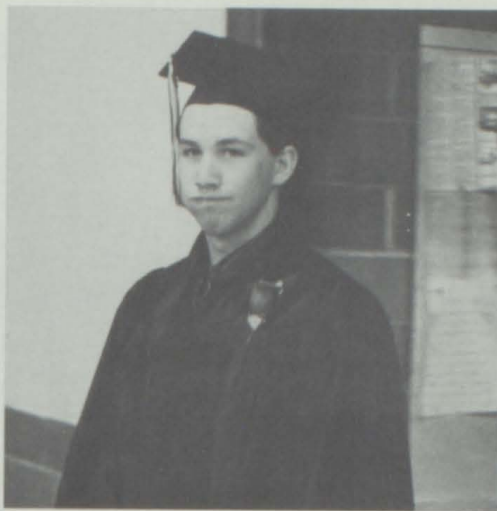

Paul Glynn giving his speech.

CONGRATULATIONS GRADS

"This is the happiest day of my life! — NOT!"

"Whoops! I forgot to spit out the mouthwash before I came!"

"Say CHEEEZI!"

"Don't let too much of that excitement show, Wally!"

"Man, I'm proud of myself!"

"Go away! This is my time to be happy!"

"Oh, wow! I think I'm gonna cry!"

"They've got L'eggs . . . Sheer Energy L'eggs!"

Class Flower: White and Red Rose
Class Colors: Maroon and Black

"Take 1 on life Class of '92!
Good Luck!"

CATCH YA

LATER, EHS!

LOTS OF BUCKS, LOTS OF BITES.

There is always loose change for food, or so it would seem so anyway at EHS. Cameraman Brent caught both students and faculty chowing down on anything from suckers and candy bars to pizza and full course meals.

(Right) Roberta Lonski keeps the sugar level high.
(Far Right) So now we know why Mr. Ulmer doesn't eat hot lunch.

(Above) "Food is my friend!"
(Shila Lampl, Sasha Klipfel)
(Center) Can you eat the whole thing, Clarissa?
(Above Right) "This stuff is terrible!" (Shelly Gall)
(Right) "O-o-o, it is so-o-o good!" (Sarah Wedell)
(Far Right) "Let's see what we can cook up here!"

Sadie, what big eyes you have!

Derick G., Jason M., Matt D., Nathan S., Steve K., Shelly G., Roxanne S., Nicole B. with faces whited out for Chemical Awareness Day.

Takedown!

(Above) "Ah — come on judge, it wasn't that bad, was it?"

"Hey, you! Check out the view!"

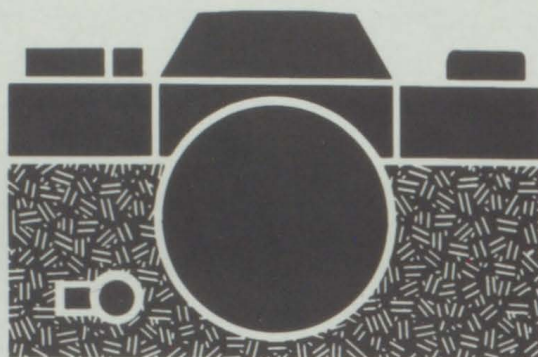

"Yeah, I know I'm cool!"

"A scissors might work better, Justin."

"Hey, baby! Come on over!"

"I've just got to pass this test!"

"Yeah, my first day on the job — gotta impress the babes!"

"You're kidding, right?"

"Ah, I tell you when you can take my picture!"

"Those seeds always get stuck!"

"I have a feeling it's going to be an excellent day!"

"And doggone it! Justice for all!"

"What was that, geek?"

"Good morning, Sunshine!"

Leo Grossman speaks on Berger's disease

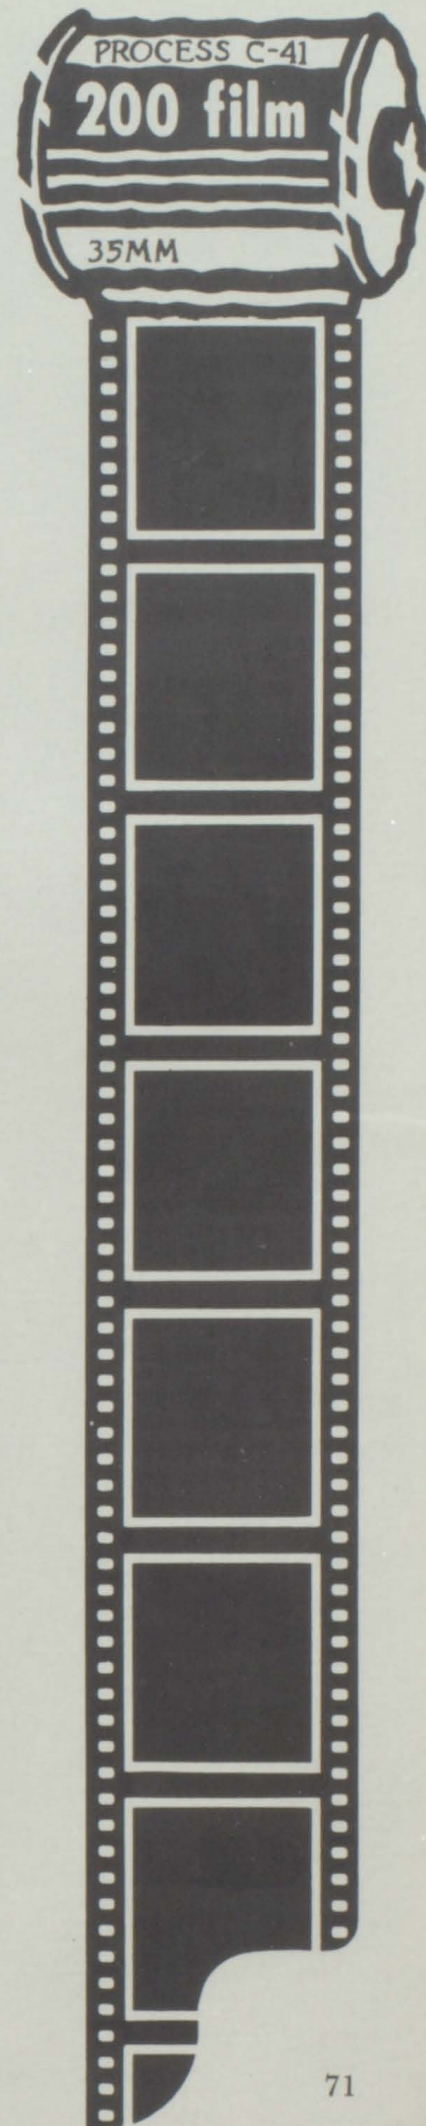

"I'm so mad I could scream!"

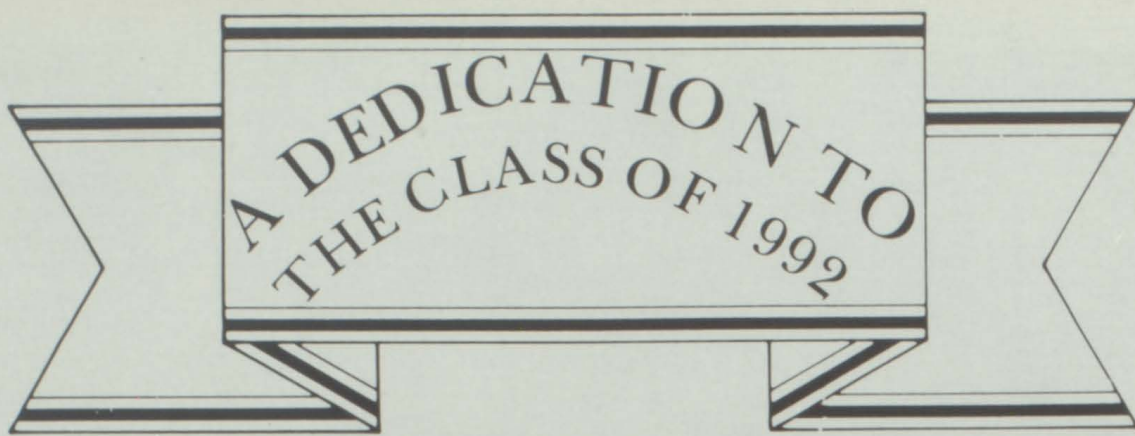

"Coach! I forgot to wear my support bra!"

Cameraman Brent finally got caught himself!

GROWING UP WITH FRIENDS

From the scared little faces
looking into another's
To the afternoon naps on our rugs
From the cute little crafts we made for our mothers
To the days when we loved collecting bugs
From our learning to write and not print
To the days of learning to multiply and divide
From our elementary track meets where we'd sprint
To putting on our 6th grade plays with pride
From our trying out for cheerleading fit "in"
To our first tackle in football
From learning about what makes the earth spin
To figuring out how to drive with Mr. Gall
From sewing jogging pants and reading
recipes to cook
To skipping shower-taking in Phy. Ed.
From putting on make-up to improve how we look
To dissecting frogs, worms, and pigs
— all dead
From the excitement and anticipation of the Cowbell
To the freezing hyperness of Homecoming

From small group music contests
hoping to do well
To rushed activities in the spring
From Physics, Chemistry, and Biology with Mr. Sykora
To Algebra, Geometry, and Trig with Mrs. Heinz
From the knowledge of history Mr. Ulmer always wanted more of
To learning from Mr. Smith what notes went on which lines
From learning grammar from Mrs. Thielges
To learning how to compose writing from
Mr. Massett
From the dreadful thought of them failing us
To the feeling of accomplishment after finishing the assignment
From the party planning and socializing
at Cenex
To the reckless driving and fines
From finding out parents and fun don't always mix
To breaking the rules anyway with our mischievous minds
From the scared little faces when we first met
To our May 17th graduation where we would part
From the beginning of our friendship
when bonds were set
To the solid foundation of memories from which a new life will start

A FRIEND YOU'VE ALWAYS BEEN

In times of tears and loneliness,
A friend you've always been.
Your loyalty and steadfastness,
At times have helped me win.

The times of laughter and of joy
Resulted from your jokes.
The twinkle in your eye was coy
When thinking of a hoax.

Together we have done some crime,
And lessons we have learned.
Yet through it all we've wasted time,
While freedom we have yearned.

The long awaited time has come

For us to go our ways.
Only a happiness for some,
The ones who count the days.

To say good-bye to all your friends
That you have known for years,
A long, hard task that never ends
And one that causes tears.

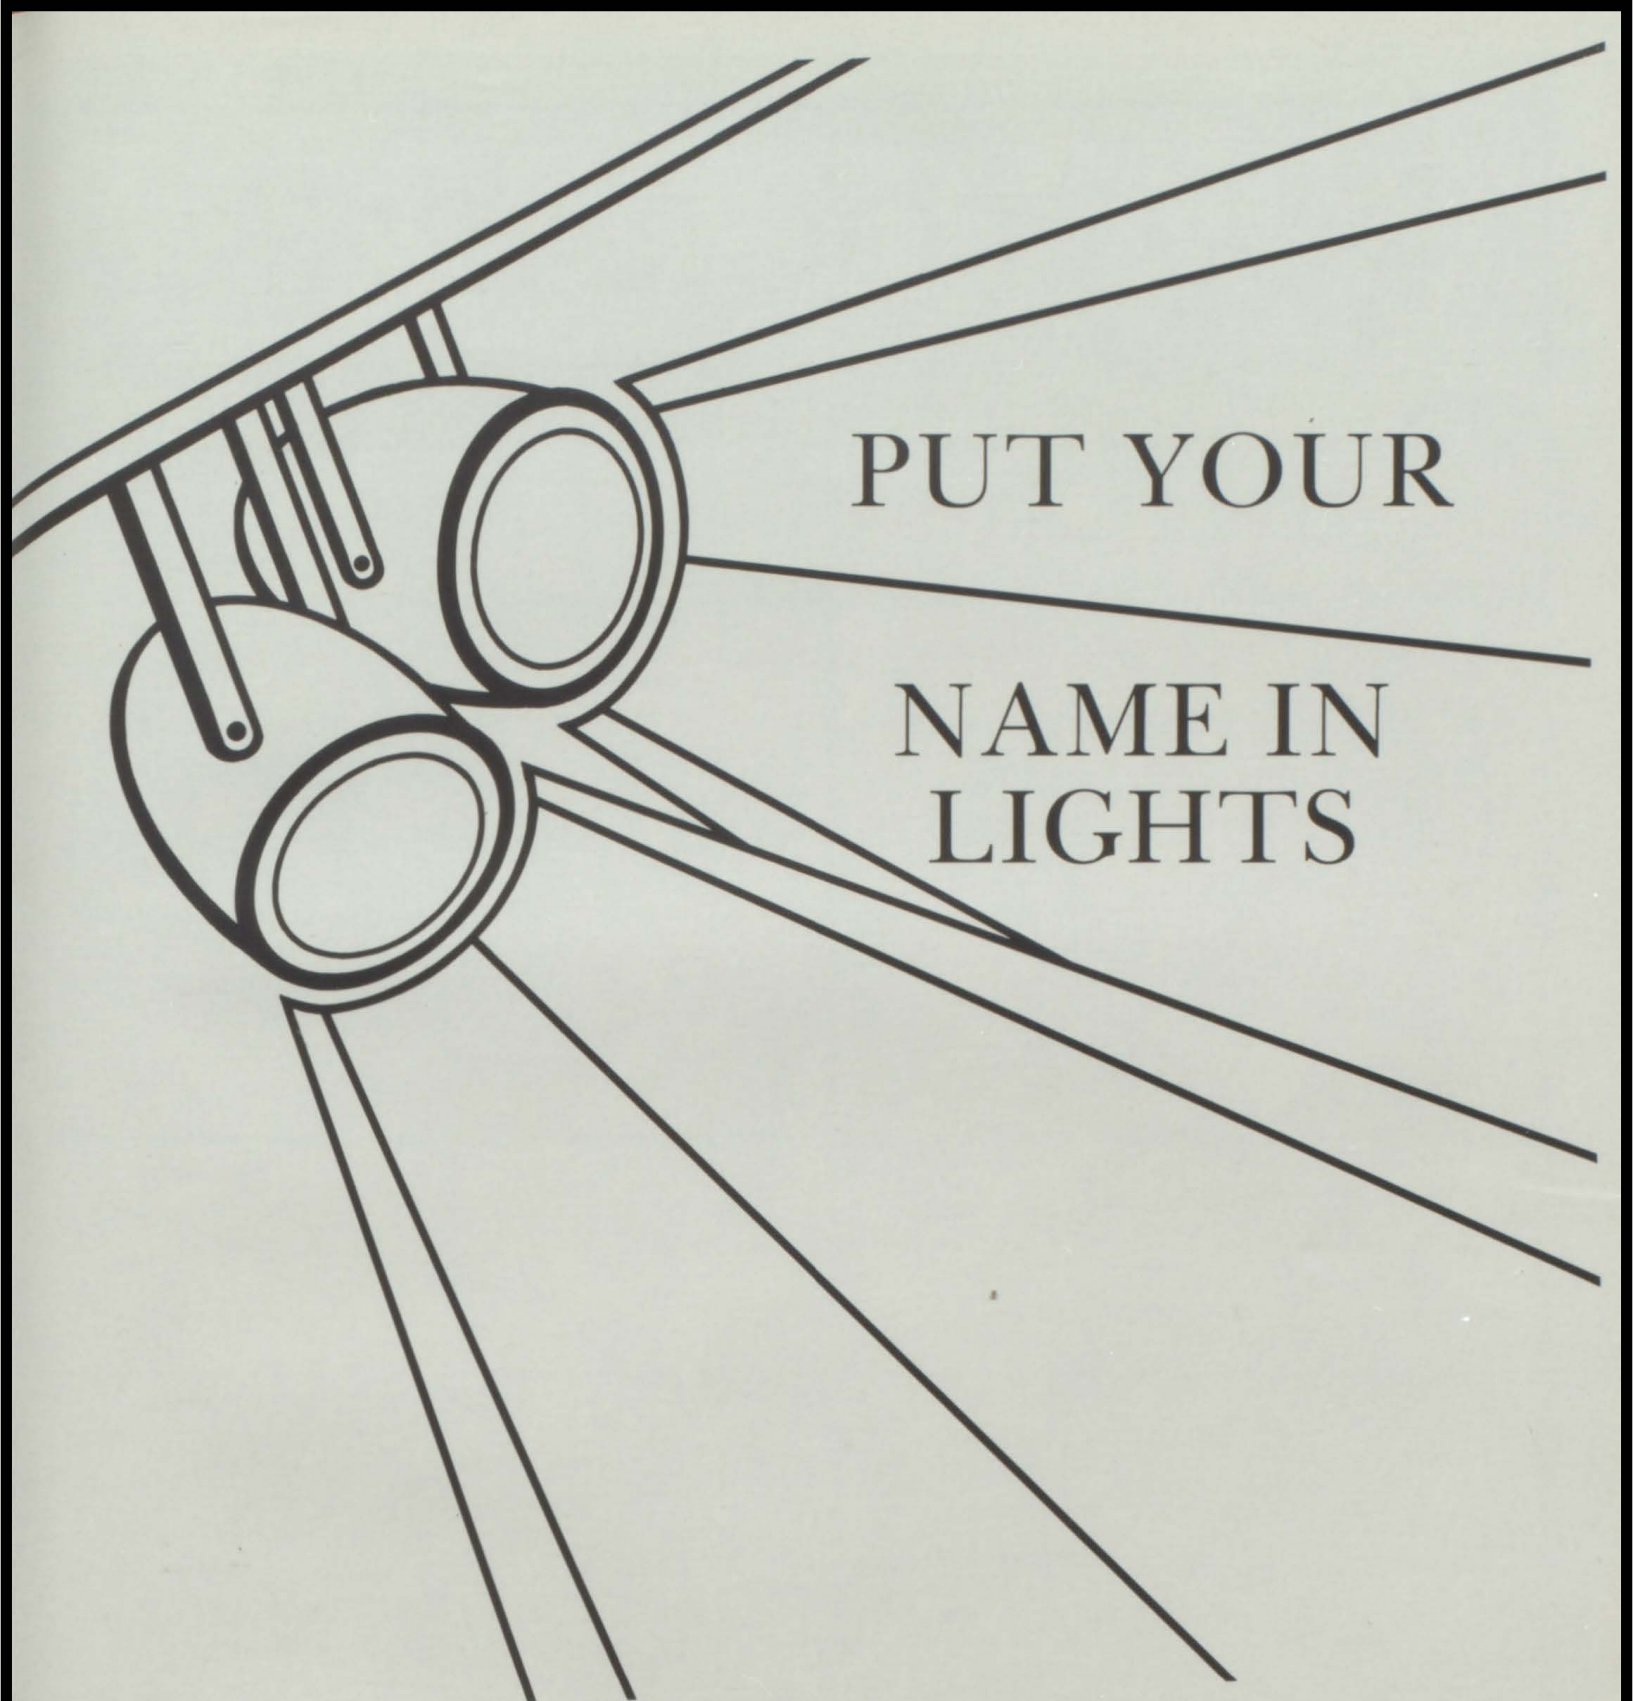

The mem'ries we have will remain
In our hearts forever.
New mem'ries that we will gain
And old ones won't be severed.
